Future

Biography

Y. Ping Sun is of counsel with the law firm of Yetter Coleman LLP, a distinguished boutique litigation firm in Houston. Before joining Yetter Coleman LLP, Ping practiced law in the New York offices of White & Case LLP and Sidley Austin LLP, where her practice focused on corporate and cross border issues. She has participated in a great variety of transactions involving both sovereign and private issuers.

Ping is the immediate past chair of the Asia Society Texas Center, a trustee for Texas Children's Hospital, a board member of the Barbara Bush Literacy Foundation, Hermann Park Conservancy, Greater Houston Community Foundation and the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation. Ping serves on the advisory board of Chinese Community Center, and is the past chair of the Mayor's International Trade and Development Council for Asia/Australia. Ping is a graduate of Center for Houston's Future Leadership Forum. Ping served as a co-chair of the Grants Committee of the Hurricane Harvey Relief Fund, was a member of the seven-person Advisory Task Force for the Greater Houston COVID-19 Recovery Fund, a member of the Advisory Board of the Houston Winter Storm Recovery Fund and a member of the Disaster Recovery Council.

Ping's community service has been recognized by several organizations, including Teach For America, the Greater Houston Partnership, the Immigration Clinic of University of Houston Law Center, Asia Society Texas Center, Asian Chamber of Commerce, the Holocaust Museum Houston and the City of Houston with a proclamation of April 23, 2015, December 18, 2018 and December 13, 2021 as "Y. Ping Sun Day".

Ping received an AB degree from Princeton University and a law degree from Columbia University School of Law.
